No. 993.

Bangalore, 26th June 1885.

To,

The Secretary to the Dewan,

General Department.

Sir,

With reference to the Dewan's Notification No. 1224-7/18 of 14th May 1885, appointing Surgeon Major J. L. McLaurin, M. D. Senior Surgeon to the Mysore Government and Surgeon P. H. Benson, M. B. to be Civil Surgeon, Chimical Examiner and Superintendent of Jail at Mysore, I have to request orders as to their pay and allowances.

By proceedings of the Dewan dated 1st August 1883, the salary of Brigade Surgeon J. Houston M. D. was fixed at Rs: 1050, with a monthly allowance of Rs: 450 for all medical charges; and when Brigade Surgeon Henderson was appointed Senior Surgeon to the Mysore Government in succession to Dr. Houston, it was specially ordered in proceedings of the Dewan No. 650-1/10 dated 27th April 1885 that he should get in addition to his Military pay of Rs: 1093-2-0 a Monthly allowance of Rs: 406-14-0 for all medical charges. In both cases the total was Rupees 1,500 with a free house.

Dr. Mcjann whose unemployed pay and rank as a Surgeon Major of 18 years would be Rs: 677-6-11 has claimed as Senior Surgeon a consolidated salary of Rs: 1,500 (his personal allowance being absorbed in the amount) and I have passed his bill tentatively with house rent at Rs: 110. I beg to be informed whether I have rightly interpreted the orders above quoted, as applying to Dr. Mcjann.

Under the Dewan's Notification above quoted Dr. Benson would be entitled to Rs: 850 per mensem for the charges as noted in the margin. He has been ever claimed a consolidated salary of Rs: 950 per mensem from the date of taking charge including I presume Rs: 100, for the charge of the Female Hospital at Mysore, which is not however mentioned in the above Notification. This allowance is chargeable in the accounts in the proportion of $\frac{2}{3}$ to Municipal and $\frac{1}{3}$ to District Funds.
